(ii) keeping pupils’ records;
(iii) the preparation of rooms and halls for examinations and other functions;
(d) supervise arrest classes; and
(e) perform other ancillary duties;

“workshop attendant” means an employee who is required to –
(a) keep a workshop and its equipment clean;
(b) prepare for use any equipment which may be required; and
(c) perform other ancillary duties;

3. (1) Subject to the other provisions of these regulations and regulation 6, an employee shall be –

(a) governed by the conditions of employment specified in –
   (i) the Workers’ Rights Act 2019; and
   (ii) the First Schedule,

and remunerated at the rates specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) Where the conditions of employment in the Workers’ Rights Act 2019 are different from those in the First Schedule, the conditions specified in the First Schedule shall prevail.

(3) The rates specified in the Second Schedule include –

(a) the appropriate national minimum wage payable under the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2017; and

(4) Subject to paragraph (7), where a teacher changes his employer, he shall receive from his new employer one increment in respect of every 2 years of acceptable past teaching experience acquired by him.

(5) Subject to paragraph (7), a teacher shall receive from his employer one increment in respect of every –

(a) 2 years of acceptable teaching experience acquired in the service of the same employer before 1 June 1971;

(b) year of acceptable teaching experience acquired in the service of the same employer after 1 June 1971.

(6) (a) An increment which is payable under paragraph (5) (b) shall be paid on 1 January every year.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (5)(b), a year shall be deemed to include part of a year.

(7) A teacher shall not receive –

(a) more than 5 increments under paragraphs (4) and (5)(a);

(b) any increment, where he is drawing the top salary in the scale which applies to him.

(8) Where a graduate holds –

(a) a Higher School Certificate or an equivalent qualification acceptable to the Minister; or

(b) a professional certificate in education or an equivalent qualification acceptable to the Minister, he shall, on his first appointment, be entitled to one additional increment.

(9) An employee, other than a teacher, to whom a salary scale applies shall be entitled to one increment for every year of service performed in the same capacity with his employer.

4. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), where a conversion of salary from one grade to a superior grade is effected by an employer for the benefit of a teacher already in his service, the conversion shall be so effected as not to reduce the salary payable to the teacher in the lower grade.

(2) Where there is no equivalent salary in the scale applicable to the higher grade, the salary payable shall be the next higher salary in that grade.

5. Every employee shall be entitled to a rest of not less than 11 consecutive hours in any day.

6. Nothing in these regulations shall –

(a) prevent an employer from –

(i) providing an employee with conditions of employment which are more favourable than those specified in the First Schedule; or

(ii) remunerating the employee at a rate higher than that specified in the Second Schedule;

(b) authorise an employer –

(i) to reduce the wages of an employee; or

(ii) subject to section 57 of the Employment Relations Act, to alter the conditions of employment of the employee so as to make them less favourable;

(c) be construed as imposing an obligation on an employer to remunerate a teacher, other than a teacher who was in employment at the date of commencement of these regulations, in accordance with his qualifications rather than in accordance with the remuneration attached to the post he occupies.

7. The Private Secondary Schools Employees (Remuneration Order) Regulations 1984 are revoked.

8. These regulations shall come into operation on 24 October 2019.

Made by the Minister on 11 October 2019.
FIRST SCHEDULE
[Regulations 2, 3 and 6]

CONDITIONS OF WORK
PART – GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Hours of attendance and of teaching

(1) Subject to subparagraph (2), a teacher shall not be required to –

(a) be in attendance at a school for more than 6 hours on any day, inclusive of half an hour for a meal break;

(b) do more than 4½ hours of actual teaching on any day.

(2) Subparagraph (1) shall not apply to a teacher who is attending a training course for teachers.

(3) A teacher shall not be required to –

(a) supervise arrest classes;

(b) perform the duties of an orderly more than once in a fortnight;

(c) teach more than 3 subjects in any one week.

2. Part-time teachers

(1) Where a teacher is employed part-time within school hours, he shall be remunerated at the following rate –

\frac{1.25 \text{ MS} \times \text{HT}}{97.5}

(a) “MS” means monthly salary determined in accordance with the Second Schedule;
(b) “HT” means the number of hours of teaching actually done by the part-time teacher;

(c) “97.5” represents the average monthly hours a full-time teacher may be expected to teach.

(2) For the purpose of subparagraph (1) –
“school hours” means the hours between 8.00 a.m. and 4.00 p.m..

(3) Paragraph 1 shall not apply to part-time teachers.

3. Security of employment

(1) A teacher whose services are terminated by his employer without good and sufficient cause within 3 weeks immediately preceding the start of any school vacation shall, without prejudice to any severance allowance, be entitled to his full salary up to the end of that vacation.

(2) For the purpose of subparagraph (1) –
“vacation” includes end-of-year vacation.

4. Study leave

A teacher who is the beneficiary of a Government-sponsored scholarship in the field of education or any subject taught in the school where he is employed shall be granted leave without pay for a period not exceeding 3 years.

5. Vacation leave

(1) Subject to subparagraph (2), an employee, other than a migrant employee, who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of at least 5 consecutive years shall be entitled to a vacation leave of not more than 30 days, whether taken consecutively or otherwise, for every period of 5 consecutive years, to be spent abroad, locally or partly abroad and partly locally.

(2) Subject to subparagraph (7), any subsequent eligibility period of 5 consecutive years shall be computed after the employee resumes work after the vacation leave under subparagraph (1).

(3) The vacation leave shall be –

(a) for a period of not less than 6 consecutive days; and

(b) with pay and such pay shall, in case the employee opts to spend the leave wholly or partly abroad, be effected at least 7 working days before the employee proceeds abroad.

(4) The vacation leave shall be deemed to constitute attendance at work and shall not be cumulative.

(5) An employee shall, except in exceptional circumstances, give not less than 3 months’ notice when applying for the vacation leave and the employer shall, subject to reasonable business grounds, accede to the application.

(6) Where an employer cannot, on reasonable business grounds, accede to the request of an employee under subparagraph (5) –

(a) the employee and the employer may agree on another period when the vacation leave is to be taken; or

(b) in default of an agreement, the employer shall pay to the employee a normal day’s wage in respect of each day’s leave applied for and such payment shall be effected in the month in which the leave was due to start.

7. Where an employee is paid wages in lieu of the vacation leave under subparagraph (6), any subsequent eligibility period of 5 consecutive years shall be computed as from the date of payment of the leave.
