

Tripartite Workshops on “Joint Union Management Negotiating Skills” and “Promoting Social Dialogue”

The Ministry of Labour, Industrial Relations & Employment, in collaboration with the International Training Centre (ITC) of the International Labour Organisation (ILO), organised two four-day tripartite workshops as follows:

- (a) “Joint Union-Management Negotiating Skills” from 13 to 16 April 2009; and
- (b) “Promoting Social Dialogue” from 20 to 23 April 2009.

The primary objective of the Workshop on “Joint Union Management Negotiating Skills” was to provide the participants with a thorough understanding of modern techniques of negotiating skills with a view to strengthening their knowledge for the purpose of conducting collective bargaining.

The main goal of the Workshop on “Promoting Social Dialogue” was to help contribute to the creation of a culture and momentum of dialogue among employers, workers and government and participants to the Workshop were exposed to a wide spectrum of experiences of social dialogue, with particular focus on social dialogue at national level.
