

In view of the future amendments to be brought to the two main Labour Laws in Mauritius, the Minister of Labour, Industrial Relations, Employment and Training, Honourable Soodesh Callichurn started consultations with Trade Unions' Confederations on 16 March 2015. He also had a first working session with the Mauritius Employers Federation on Thursday 19 March 2015 regarding the same issue. The Minister has decided to set up a Technical Committee that will examine all proposals.

