

In the context of the activities being organized under the Decent Work Country Programme, a Tripartite Workshop on “Re-engineering of the Labour inspection system” for the staff of the Labour and Industrial Relations cadre was held on 09 May 2015 at the Gold Crest Hotel with a view to rendering the system more effective and more responsive to the new challenges of the world of work.

